

Society for the Study of the History of Analytic Philosophy

June 4–6, 2015
Trinity College Dublin

Parallel Sessions will be held in the Arts Building, Rooms 5052, 5051, 5040 and 5039. Keynote Sessions will be held in the Neill Lecture Theatre in the Long Room Hub building. Refreshments and sandwich lunches will be served during breaks. The conference dinner is on Friday night in Fallon and Byrne.

The conference organizers are grateful to the Arts and Social Sciences Benefactions Fund and the Visiting Professorship and Fellowships Benefaction Fund for their generous support of the fourth annual conference of the Society for the Study of the History of Analytic Philosophy.

Thursday, June 4th

- 10:00–11:00                      Registration, Arts Building, outside Room 5052
- 11:00–1:00                      Session 1
- 5052                      Juliet Floyd, "The Sheffer Box"
Bernard Linsky, "Russell's 1914 Course on Advanced Logic at Harvard"
- 5039                      Michael Potter, "Frege's early philosophy of logic"
Consuelo Preti, "Mental Science and Moral Science at Cambridge in the 19th century: Moore's milieu and the origins of analytical philosophy"
- 5040                      David Pereplyotchik, "Brandom and Sellars on Empiricism and Modality"
Peter Olen, "Was Sellars an Error Theorist?"
- 1:00–2:00                      Lunch, Sandwiches outside Room 5052
- 2:00–4:00                      Session 2
- 5052                      Joan Weiner, "Frege's unmetaphysical story about natural language and truth"
Scott Sehon, "Frege and Davidson: Logical Aliens and Interpretation"
- 5039                      Kevin Mulligan, "Essence, Nonsense and Operations—Husserl and Wittgenstein"
Bruno Langlet, "Objectuality and Representationalism : Meinong and Twardowski on Content and Object"
- 5040                      Sandra Lapointe, "Kant and the History of Logic"
Rowland Stout, "Ryle and Behaviorism"
- 4:00–4:30                      Coffee and Tea, Long Room Hub, third floor
- 4:30–6:00                      Keynote, Neill Lecture Theatre, Long Room Hub, second floor
- Michael Kremer, "Ryle's 'Intellectualist Legend' in Historical Context"
- 6:00                      Reception, Long Room Hub, third floor

Saturday, June 6th

- 8:00–9:00                    Coffee and Tea, Arts Building, outside Room 5052
- 9:00–11:00                    Session 5
- 5052                         Peter Simons, “A History of Categorical Grammar from Frege to Montague”
                                       Jan Wolenski, “The Story of the German Translation of Tarski’s Book on Truth”
- 5039                         James Levine, “Russell’s Linguistic Turn”
                                       Cheryl Misak, “Pragmatism’s Subterranean influence on the Vienna Circle: Peirce, Ramsey, Wittgenstein”
- 5040                         Sebastian Grève, “Why Believe the Dictionary? – Ordinary Language Philosophy: Between Austin and Wittgenstein”
                                       Nikolay Milkov, “On John Wisdom”
- 11:00–11:30                    Coffee and Tea, Long Room Hub, third floor
- 11:30–1:00                    Keynote, Neill Lecture Theatre, Long Room Hub
- Thomas Baldwin, “Russell on Implication”
- 1:00–2:00                    Sandwich Lunch, Long Room Hub, third floor
- 2:00–4:00                    Session 6
- 5052                         Stewart Shapiro, “Frege on Real Numbers”
                                       Alan Weir, “Quine, Analyticity, and Naturalism”
- 5039                         Peter Hylton, “Quine’s Philosophies of Language”
                                       Landon Elkind, “On ‘Vagueness’”
- 5040                         Susanne Huber, “Identity in Wittgenstein’s Tractatus”
                                       Miquel Miralbes del Pino, “Bi-polarity and Double Negation: Wittgenstein’s Objection to Russell’s Theory of Judgment”
- 5051                         James Pearson, “Frege’s Alleged Pragmatism”
                                       Matt Carlson, “Proof, Justification, and Reduction to Primitive Truths”
- 4:00–4:30                    Coffee and Tea, Long Room Hub, third floor
- 4:30–6:00                    Keynote, Neill Lecture Theatre, Long Room Hub
- Wolfgang Künne, “Bolzano on Intuitions, Demonstratives and Communication”